

	Type of Beak	Bird Examples	Equipment	Can it be used to eat insects? (cotton buds)	Can it be used to eat fish and frogs? (coins)	Can it be used to eat nuts and seeds? (marbles)	Can it be used to drink nectar? (water)
	Flat and wide bill	* Spoonbill * Black Duck	2 wooden spoons
	Long and sharp beak	* White-faced Heron * Little Egret	2 chopsticks
	Long and thin beak	* Straw-necked Ibis * Eastern Curlew	1 pair of tongs
	Shorter beak	* Willie Wagtail * Grey Fantail	1 pair of tweezers
	Slender and curved beak and a long tongue	* Blue-faced Honeyeater * Red Wattlebird	1 eye dropper or 1 large syringe

This activity has been adapted by CERES from LandLearn's 'Beaks and Feet' activity, which is part of the 'Biodiversity in Balance' resource.